AS - Women's Slalom Sitting overturned the original disqualification

Summary:

The International Paralympic Committee Alpine Skiing Board of Appeal overturned the original disqualification of Anna Schaffelhuber during the 1st Run.

Details:

Anna Schaffelhuber has been awarded the gold medal in the women's slalom sitting event after a successful appeal against her disqualification.

Under protest, she was allowed to complete her second run on Wednesday afternoon.

On Thursday (13 March) morning, the International Paralympic Committee Alpine Skiing Board of Appeal overturned the original disqualification made by the race jury for not having her outriggers in a stationary and fixed position at the start of the race.

The board of appeal decided that Schaffelhuber had not gained a competitive advantage from her start and therefore should not have been disqualified.

As a result of the successful appeal, the results from Wednesday's slalom sitting event are now official and the medallists are as follows:

Gold:	Anna Schaffelhuber	(GER)	2:09.93
Silver:	Anna-Lena Forster	(GER)	2:14.35
Bronze:	Kimberly Joines	(CAN)	2:15.16
