PARALYMPIC COMPETITION FORMAT

The wheelchair rugby competition at the Paris 2024 Paralympic Games is one tournament, contested by eight mixed gender teams.

The teams are split into two pools of four for preliminary phase games. Teams play against every other team in their pool once. Games that are tied at the end of regulation time shall continue through three-minute overtime periods as many times as necessary until a winner is determined. This applies to all games in the preliminary and finals phases.

Teams receive two points for a win and zero points for a loss for games during the preliminary phase. This includes wins and losses by forfeiture.

Following the preliminary phase, the two teams with the best record in each group qualify for the semifinals. In the semifinals, the team ranked top of group A plays against the team ranked second in group B, and vice versa. The winners of the semifinals then contest the gold medal match and the losers play for the bronze medal.

The remaining four teams will move to the placing playoff phase to determine the rankings from fifth to eighth. The third-ranked team in group A will play the fourth-ranked team in group B. The third-ranked team in group B will play the fourth-ranked team in group A. The winning teams will play each other for fifth and sixth place. The losing teams will play each other for seventh and eighth.

SPORT RULES AND PROCEDURES

Tiebreak rules

If two or more teams are tied on points at the end of the preliminary phase, the following procedures shall be used, in the order presented, to break the tie. As soon as one of these procedures is found to resolve the tie, the subsequent procedures are not to be used.

If a tie arises subsequent to the resolution of an earlier tie, these procedures are to be used again, in order, beginning with the first.

1. Forfeit: a tied team which forfeits a match during the preliminary round shall be deemed to have lost the tie.
2. Points: tied teams: teams will be ranked based on points gained in the preliminary round matches between the tied teams.
3. Try differential: tied teams: teams will be ranked based on try differential, the difference between the sums of the scores for and against a team, in the preliminary round matches between the tied teams.
4. Most tries: tied teams: teams will be ranked based on which team scored the most tries in the preliminary round matches between the tied teams.
5. Try differential: all teams: teams will be ranked based on the try differential in all preliminary round matches.
6. Most tries: all teams: teams will be ranked based on which team scored the most tries in all preliminary round matches.
7. Coin toss: teams will be ranked based on the results of a coin toss.

Duration and scoring

In accordance with World Wheelchair Rugby (WWR) rules, wheelchair rugby games consist of four periods of eight minutes. There will be breaks of three minutes after the first and third quarters, and a break of 10 minutes at half time.

In case of a draw at the end of the regular playing time, an overtime period of three minutes will be played, and more additional overtime periods will be played until a winner is determined. There shall be a three-minute interval between the end of regulation play and the first overtime period. If additional overtime periods are required, there shall be a two-minute interval following each overtime period.

Competition rules

The wheelchair rugby competition will be held in accordance with the current editions of the following documents that are in force at the time of the Games:

- The World Wheelchair Rugby (WWR) International Rules for the Sport of Wheelchair Rugby
- The WWR Competition Regulations
- The WWR Classification Manual

All of the above are available for download at www.worldwheelchair.rugby.

The IPC Handbook available at www.paralympic.org/the-ipc/handbook.

The WWR, working with Paris 2024 competition management, will be responsible for the technical control and direction of the wheelchair rugby competition at the Paris 2024 Paralympic Games.

CHANGES SINCE THE TOKYO 2020 PARALYMPIC GAMES

- Introduction of a placing playoff phase to determine the final ranking of eliminated teams.

DIFFERENCES FROM THE OLYMPIC GAMES

There is no Olympic equivalent sport for wheelchair rugby.

Sport terminology

Terminologie du sport

As of FRI 23 AUG 2024

Term	Definition
Alternating possession	Teams will alternate who takes possession of the ball at the start of the second, third and fourth periods of regulation time. This will also alternate after each held ball.
Captain	The player nominated by a team to lead that team, consult the referee and select options relating to referee decisions.
Centre line	The line in the middle of the court that designates front and back court, the offensive team must advance the ball into the front court in less than 12 seconds. Violation of this is a loss of possession. Once teams advance the ball into the front court, they cannot return the ball into the back court unless the opposition is the last team to have touched it.
Common fouls	An illegal action in an attempt to genuinely play the game. Common fouls include: charging, contact before the whistle, four in the key, holding, illegal use of hands, leaving the court, one metre, pushing, and spinning.
Dead ball	The ball becomes dead when the referee blows the whistle to signal a try, a violation, a foul, a timeout, or any other stoppage of play.
Dribbling the ball	There are no restrictions on the number of pushes, pivots or other wheelchair movements that are required between dribbles. The ball carrier must dribble at least once every 10 seconds to avoid a 10-second no-dribble call. Violation of this is loss of possession.
Equipment timeout	A 60-second timeout by a player who has an equipment issue. If the problem cannot be resolved in the 60-second time allotment the team must either substitute or use a team 30- or 60-second team timeout to allow extra time to resolve the equipment issue.
Fallen player	A fallen player is one who is no longer able to move the wheelchair as result of a fall. As a fallen player may not return to the play by their own effort, play must be stopped by the referee if there is a safety concern, or they can be assisted at the next dead ball stoppage.
Foul	An infraction that has occurred by either team. A common foul by the team not in possession of the ball will be subject to a 60-second penalty, served by the offending player. The offending player will be released before the end of this 60-second period if the opposing team scores a try, unless a penalty try is awarded. A penalty try may be awarded in lieu of the 60-second penalty. Play is stopped by the referee and the offending player is sent to the penalty box. Offensive fouls result in loss of possession.
Flagrant foul & disqualifying foul	A flagrant foul is given when a player fouls another player which is potentially dangerous. If at the goalline, a penalty try may be awarded plus two technical fouls. The two technical fouls are served in the penalty box consecutively. A second flagrant foul on a player in the same game will result in a disqualification foul. The player is removed from the game. A disqualifying foul is a blatant unsportsmanlike foul, or clear disregard for safety.
Game clock	The clock that records game timing, tries and timeouts.
Game officials	Each game shall be officiated by two referees known as "referee one" and "referee two". The referees shall be assisted by a game commissioner and the table officials. Table officials consist of a scorekeeper, a time keeper, a forty second operator, and a penalty keeper.

Term	Definition
Game timing	A regulation game has four eight-minute periods. An intermission of three minutes is timed after the first and third periods, and a 10-minute intermission after the second period. If scores are tied after regulation time, three-minute overtime periods are played until there is a winner.
Held ball	A held ball occurs when two opposing players share possession of the ball, or the ball becomes trapped between players' chairs, or when the ball goes out of bounds simultaneously off two opposing players. The possession arrow will determine which team takes the next throw-in after the occurrence.
Key area	An area of 8m by 1.75m located in front of each team's try line. This area is marked in a solid colour (blue for Paris 2024). Three players on the defensive team are allowed in the key area. A fourth defensive player in the key area results in a foul. All four offensive players are allowed in the key area, but each player is only allowed a maximum of 10 seconds in the key area each time they enter. Violation of this results in a turnover.
Live ball	The ball becomes live when the referee blows the whistle. This includes the tip-off and when the referee places the ball at the players' disposal.
Overtime	If the teams are tied at the end of the fourth period, overtime shall be played. A three-minute overtime period will start with a tip-off. Teams will be given an additional 30-second timeout for each overtime period played. Teams will score in the same direction as the fourth period, which is towards their bench. Teams play in the same direction for all overtime periods.
Penalty boxes	A two-metre area located across the court from the scorer's table where players serve their penalty. Players who have committed a foul will serve their penalty in the box located across from their bench.
Penalty try	A try that is awarded when a penalty occurs on an imminent try.
Playing the ball	The ball may be played with hands or forearms or carried on the lap of the players. When the ball is carried on the lap at least 75% of the ball must be visible. After a throw-in teams have 12 seconds to advance the ball past the half-court line into the front court. They have 40 seconds in total to score the try. If unsuccessful the 40 second clock will indicate a violation that results in a turnover.
Possession arrow	The possession arrow is located at the scorer's table and on the game clock. The arrow points in the try-scoring direction of which team will take possession of the ball at the start of the next period of play, or after a held ball.
Referee's timeout	Taken by referee to resolve a game issue.
60-second timeout	A 60-second timeout that can only be made by the coach or assistant coach. Each team begins the game with two 60-second timeouts.
30-second timeout	A 30-second timeout that can only be called by players on the court when their team has possession of the ball. A coach can request a 30-second timeout during any dead ball situation. Each team begins the game with four and they are awarded an additional 30-second timeout at the beginning of each overtime period.
Shirt number	All uniforms should bear numbers from 1-15, 21-25, 31-35, 41-45, and 51 and 55 inclusive of the front and back.
Starting players	The four players on each team who are designated to start the game.

Sport terminology

Terminologie du sport

As of FRI 23 AUG 2024

Term	Definition
Substitutions	A team can substitute any number of their four players during a dead ball, but not after a try. Teams cannot substitute on an equipment timeout unless that player is not able to continue. There is no limit on substitutions in games and players may re-enter the game after being substituted. Players must enter the court in the substitution box located between the team bench and the scorer's table.
Technical foul	A technical foul results from an administrative error or a violation due to unacceptable behaviour or decorum. Technical fouls may be committed by a player or by bench personnel. The sanction charged to the player is a one-minute penalty. If a technical foul is committed by any bench personnel, the coach will choose a player on the court to serve the penalty for the technical foul.
Tip-off	One player from each team will line up in the centre circle. The two players will line up on the same side of the centre line that they are defending. Referee one will start the game by tossing the ball into the air above these two players who will attempt to tip it to one of their players.
Throw-in	A throw-in is used to put the ball in play after any other stoppage in play, and to start the second, third and fourth periods of play.
Try line	An 8m-wide area between the try posts that mark where the offensive ball carrier must cross to score a try.
Try posts	The markers (pink for Paris 2024) at each end of the 8m try line that the ball carrier must touch or cross with any two of the four wheels on the rugby chair. If a ball carrier hits the try posts before a second wheel touches the line, no try is awarded.
Try clock	A 40-second clock that starts when a team takes possession of the ball. The team in possession must score in less than 40 seconds or it is a violation and loss of possession.
Try and scoring	A player scores a try by crossing their try line with possession of the ball. Any two wheels must touch or cross the line for a try which will count as one point of their team score.
Violations	There are several different violations that mostly pertain to the offensive team. They result in a loss of possession. Violations include: several throw-in violations, one in which the team has 10 seconds for the ball to be touched by any player on the court. Others include: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • 10-second dribble violation • 12-second back court violation • 10-second in the key violation • physical advantage violation • out-of-bounds violation • out and in violation (when one wheel touches the try line then comes back into the court before the second wheel touches the try line) back court violation (when the team advanced the ball to front court then enters back court with the ball).
